

MIDLAND COMMUNITY CENTER

Calling all adventure enthusiasts! The Midland Community Center is looking for a creative, energetic person to be our new Adventure Coordinator. This position is responsible for some of MCC's most active and fun programs: day camps, climbing wall, teen room, and youth and family special events. Every season brings a new opportunity for bold ideas and big events!

The Adventure Coordinator directs youth and family activities, the climbing program, and serves as day camps program coordinator. The person in this position is responsible for planning, developing, implementing, and reviewing the daily workings of a comprehensive program of youth and family services, including staff supervision.

Applicants must be 21 years or older with supervisory experience. The ideal candidate will have work experience in a licensed day camp or teen setting, climbing experience, and a Bachelor's degree in recreation or related field. Must love working with the public, especially kids and teens.

Interested applicants should submit resume and cover letter to Ellen Lynch, Program Director, at elynch@mymcc.org or by mail to 2205 Jefferson Ave., Midland, MI 48640. Application deadline is January 20, 2012.
