

MIDLAND COMMUNITY CENTER

The Midland Community Center is seeking enthusiastic and creative Belly Dance instructors for established participants and first-timers. Instructors must create a high-energy environment in which students can learn, perform, and have fun.

Instructors will teach in coordination with goals and guidelines of the dance department. Candidates must be confident, professional, and enjoy working in a diverse class. Schedule is varied; flexibility is a must. The Midland Community Center offers program discounts and free membership to employees.

Apply in person at the Midland Community Center Welcome Center. A brief resume including dance background and teaching experience is strongly recommended. The Midland Community Center is located at 2205 Jefferson Avenue, Midland.

For more information contact Alicia McGrew, (989) 832-7937, x2264. Application deadline September 1.

The Midland Community Center is the leading non-profit organization in providing affordable and quality recreational, social, and personal development opportunities for individuals and families. An operating unit of the Greater Midland Community Centers, Inc.
