

MIDLAND COMMUNITY CENTER

The Midland Community Center is looking for enthusiastic gymnastics instructors for part-time positions. Instructors teach in coordination with goals and guidelines of the Gymnastics Department. Instructors must create a high-energy environment in which students can learn, perform, and have fun. Safety is our first priority, so proper spotting technique is a must! Must be confident, professional, enthusiastic, and love working with children.

If you want to help us train tomorrow's leaders, submit a completed application to the Midland Community Center Welcome Center, attention Alicia McGrew. A brief resume including gymnastics background, teaching experience, availability, is strongly recommended. Hours are varied; contact Alicia at (989) 832-7937 x2264 for more information.

The Midland Community Center offers program discounts and free membership to employees! Applications are available at the Midland Community Center and online at www.greatermidland.org/jobs. Screening starts immediately; position open until January 13, 2012.
