

Have you ditched the workout and joined the party? North Midland Family Center in Mills Township is seeking certified Zumba Instructors to teach classes twice a week. We want your moves, rhythm, and excitement to energize our members!

Classes are available at NMFC in Mills Township, Meridian Schools in Sanford, and Northwood University in Midland. Candidates must be able to teach at least two evening classes a week; opportunities to teach several classes each week are also available. Instructors must be able to substitute at each location as necessary.

Selected candidates will work in an excellent environment, receive excellent pay, and be an important piece of the best health and wellness organization in the region.

Immediate openings available! Send your resume and letter of interest to Kelly O'Farrell, ofarrell@nmfc.org, or fill out an application at 2601 E. Shearer Road, Midland. Posting is open until filled with the dedicated, high-quality instructors we seek.
